| Physical Description / Condition: | 7 cm. (1/4box) containing correspondence, clippings and promotional material |
| Administrative/ Biographical Sketch | The Canadian Foundation for Economic Education was created with the idea that Canadians would be better able to assess public issues if they knew more about the economic factors involved. This is a federally chartered, non-political and non-profit organization which began operations in June of 1974. The national headquarters were set up in Toronto, Ontario with Provincial Councils in other parts of the country. This foundation works primarily through schools and colleges by encouraging teachers to use effective teaching materials. They also provide free, non-commercial programs and programs to assist newcomers to Canada. The foundation also works internationally with organizations in Paris, Amsterdam and Asia. |
